

Missing

Gingerbread man ran away!

Captured by Class 5 children!

The children used lolly sticks, pipe cleaners and wool to create a net to capture the gingerbread man, which had escaped from their classroom earlier that morning. The children used their own nets to go out to try to capture the gingerbread man.

They searched around the school, and they then found the gingerbread man hiding behind a tree on the school field.

